

AN OIL TAX BALLOT MEASURE WILL GO BEFORE ALASKA VOTERS LATER THIS YEAR.

Learn What This Measure Does And How It Impacts You

Alaska's oil and gas industry is a major contributor to Alaska's economy, creating jobs, hiring local small businesses, paying for government services and infrastructure projects, and contributing money directly to the Alaska Permanent Fund.

JOBS

One-quarter of all Alaska jobs are attributed to the oil and gas industry

Source: McDowell Group study, January 2020, Juneau, Alaska

REVENUE

75% of Alaska's revenue from business comes from oil*

Source: Alaska Dept. of Revenue, Fall 2019 Revenue Sources Book

*includes royalty income

MORE OIL

Oil production now is 75,000 barrels per day greater than projected in 2013

Source: Alaska Dept. of Revenue, Fall 2013 and Fall 2019 Revenue Sources Book

What Will The Ballot Measure Do?

Raises oil taxes by 300%*

Goes too far and will cause oil companies to cut back spending in Alaska

Fewer Alaska jobs

Local small businesses will see job losses as companies spend less

Jeopardizes Alaska's future

Short-term benefit from higher oil revenues but Alaska's economy will suffer long-term

Less oil production

Threatens promising new oil discoveries and critical investment in fields like Prudhoe Bay that could add up to 50% more oil to the pipeline

*at $60 per barrel oil prices; Roger Marks, independent economist

"ECONOMICALLY IT IS A MESS"

Independent Economist Roger Marks, October 14, 2019
Anchorage Daily News

What You Can Do To Help!

Get Informed

Learn more about the issue at OneALASKA.com

Join the Coalition

JOIN US

Add your business or organization, or sign up as an individual member

Volunteer

Help us spread the word at events around the state

OneALASKA is a coalition of over 500 local businesses, community groups and individuals standing against this ballot measure because it puts Alaska jobs, our economy and our future at risk.

OneALASKA.com